Smith; grand conductor, Harry Temporal; bridge guard, grand guardian, Alfred L. Lilley; Hartford; grand herald, Leo Davis, Norwalk.

MOORE.

Eleven Moose lodges of the state report that they will send approximately 1,000 members to the annual day of the order in New London June 19. This is the report made by Charles E. Cavanaugh, general chairman of New London lodge, at a meeting of committee chairman. The reports received by Chairman Cavanaugh to date show that Norwich will send 200 members, headed by Tubbs band; Waterbury, between 400 and 500; Ansonia and Derby, 600; New Haven, 1,000 or more; Hartford, 500 or 600; Stamford, 200; South Norwalk, 200; Meriden, 200; Middletown, from 100 to 200; Willimantic, 100 to 200. Reports were expected from other lodges during the next week. It is estimated that there will be nearly 10,000 in the city.

All of the committee chairmen, with two or three exceptions, attended the meeting and made reports. F. C. Burrows, chairman of the field events, reported that arrangements are progressing nicely. The committee is desirous of securing entries of teams of 10 men each from the various manufacturing concerns of the city to compete for the championship of the city factories. A cash prize of $25 will be awarded the winner.

Henry Warner, chairman of the refreshment committee, reported that there will be plenty of ice cream, soda, sandwiches and other drinks and viands for distribution at the grove all day. Dancing will also be provided.

D. J. Daly, chairman of the printing committee, said that the committee had mailed all the lodges in the state entry blanks for athletic events and also large posters giving the details of the field day.

D. J. Doyle, chairman of the committee on prizes, reported that there had been purchased 12 silver loving cups, nine gold medals, nine silver medals and nine bronze medals to be awarded for various events.

August Kopp, chairman of the uniform committee, stated that a large number of members of New London lodge had already signed up for uniforms and requested that members who have not leave their names at the club rooms.

Chaplin's Prayers Impress Legislators.

Legislators from all parts of the state comment upon the worth and fairness of the prayers of House Chaplain Edward P. Ayer of Groton. At the session Tuesday, when the vote was taken which resulted in sustaining the vote of Governor Lake in regard to the Sunday schools bill, the chaplain prayed with kindness and consideration, using these words: "Our Father, we come before Thee with grateful hearts. Give us open minds and humility of spirit. Guide us that we may know the right and have the courage of our convictions. Give us a broad charity for the opinion of others that we may work together in harmony for the good of state and nation, and keep ourselves wide open to the world's greater needs. At the end of the day, grant us pardon and rest which we ask in the name of Him who knew the right and always did it. Amen."
